Gearing Up for The Paper Bag Players at the Keystone

The Keystone Theatre Grand Re-Opening Celebrations are in full swing and preparations are underway for Thursday's presentation of "Laugh! Laugh! Laugh!" with The Paper Bag Players as part of those celebrations.

The Bradford County Regional Arts Council will present the nationally touring group as part of its Grand Re-Opening Celebrations and 2011-2012 Nightlife on the Susquehanna Series on Thursday, December 8 at 7pm. Attendees will enjoy carolers in the lobby, hot chocolate, cider and Cookies in a Bag!

The Paper Bag Player's 2011-2012 national touring show takes audiences from an uproarious opening number through a musical story about the first day of school to the adventures of Amazing Amy, a regular kid who just happens to be a super hero. The show will have patrons of all ages giggling, chuckling, guffawing and roaring for more!

Tickets for the show are $13 for adults, $9 for seniors and students. Tickets can be purchased online at www.bcrac.org or by calling the Arts Council at 570-268-ARTS (2787). BCRAC encourages Nightlife Subscribers who are unable to attend the performance contact the office so that BCRAC may pass unused tickets on to Big Brothers/Big Sisters for a Big & Little fun night out. BCRAC is also taking "sponsorships" for Bigs & Littles to attend the show. Contact the BCRAC Office at 570-268-ARTS (2787).

Don't miss this great family night out at the theatre!

The Bradford County Regional Arts Council (BCRAC) is an arts service organization committed to supporting arts and culture throughout the region. For more information, visit BCRAC online at www.bcrac.org or www.facebook.com/BCRAC.
