National Players

"Taming of the Shrew"

Thursday, October 20, 2011 at 7:30 PM
Guthrie Performing Arts Center in the Sayre Theatre
Tickets $13 Seniors/Students
$15 Adults

America's longest running professional theatre troupe presents William Shakespeare's classic battle of the sexes with a unique setting of the wild, wild, west! Cowboy boots, whips, and lassos give a biting punch to this classic. Sparring lovers Kate and Petruchio duke it out on the western frontier for a rip-snortin' good time! Will they ride off into the sunset or die tryin'? The verbal duel never stops as National Players presents one of Shakespeare's most popular comedies. Giddyup!

"Why, there's a wench! Come on and kiss me, Kate." ~ Petruchio (Taming of the Shrew)

Molly Mason and Jay Ungar

Sunday, November 20, 2011 at 4:00 PM
Keystone Theatre
Tickets $13 Seniors/Students
$15 Adults

Show Sponsor: Williams Companies

Grammy Award-winners Jay Ungar & Molly Mason present a timeless program of American folk and traditional music. The duo is well known for Ungar's deeply moving composition Ashokan Farewell, selected as the theme song for Ken Burns' momentous 1990 PBS documentary series, The Civil War. Jay and Molly are one of the most celebrated duos on the American acoustic music scene. Listen to their timeless renditions of hard-driving Appalachian, Cajun and Celtic fiddle tunes, stirring Civil War classics, stunning waltzes and deeply moving original compositions and it is immediately apparent why Ungar and Mason concerts warm the heart, feed the soul, and appeal to all ages.

"Jay Ungar and Molly Mason play music from the heart which reminds us of the best in all of us." -Ken Burns, producer of PBS' "The Civil War"

"Jay and Molly make music that is simple and overwhelming . . . joyful and full of feeling . . . an apotheosis of American traditional music." -Garrison Keillor, host and creator of "A Prairie Home Companion"

"Mrs. Mannerly"

Thursday, January 12, 2012 at 7:30 PM
Guthrie Performing Arts Center in the Sayre Theatre
Tickets $10 Seniors/Students $13 Adults

"Mrs. Mannerly" is inspired by hilarious memories of a childhood etiquette class, as playwright Jeffrey Hatcher conjures up the world of a ten-year-old studying manners. Mrs. Mannerly is a demanding teacher, and no student in her thirty-six years of etiquette classes has achieved a perfect score. But when he discovers her secret past, Young Jeffrey is determined to be the first to achieve this feat. This unique comic tale reveals truths about the face we present and the real selves that lie inside.

"MRS. MANNERLY is the title character in Jeffrey Hatcher's delicious little play about a stand-up student named Jeffrey and the time he spends in a 1967 etiquette class under the tutelage of a mysterious and wonderfully well-mannered teacher. An absolutely charming night of theater. This is a ticket that everyone who loves good manners and live theater should have." —Houston Press

DePue Brothers Quintet

Classical / Bluegrass / Rock

Saturday, March 3, 2012 at 7:30 PM
Keystone Theatre
Tickets $20 Seniors/Student
$22 Adult

"Incredible energy and virtuosity...this band delivers!" wrote Tom Warner, former VP of programming at the Kimmel Center in Philadelphia. Four virtuoso violinists supported by a non-traditional bluegrass cast of guitar, bass, banjo and percussion create an ear-bending experience, gliding through a rich mix of musical genres from classical to bluegrass to rock and blues. Their most recent album, Weapons of Grass Construction, with its progressive mix of genres, gives a direct nod to their bluegrass tradition and their classical training, while adding a deeper infusion of rock and blues "Nice guys, great players, and the audience jumped up and cheered. How much better does it get?" wrote Larry Groce, Mountain Stage (NPR).

"This band of brothers, and symphonic friends, gives real meaning to the phrase 'progressive bluegrass,' bending genres while delivering a powerful mix of classical chops, blazing bluegrass, and rock and roll." Hal Real, President, World Café Live

Cooking with the Calamari Sisters

Tuesday, April 17, 2012 at 7:30 PM
Guthrie Performing Arts Center in the Sayre Theatre
Tickets $20 Seniors/Students $22 Adults

Show Sponsor: Moore's Auto & RV Sales

Hilarity, failed dishes and food fights ensue during this "live broadcast" of a public access cable cooking show, hosted by two larger-than-life Italian sisters, Delphine and Carmela Calamari. The sisters sing and dance their way through four courses of Italian food with such beloved favorites as Volare, Come On a My House, Botcha Me, Que Sera Sera, That's Amore, and of course, Mambo Italiano! With a little help in the kitchen from audience members, the sisters fill two hours with hysterical family anecdotes and musical numbers as they try to make it through their final broadcast together in one piece. These sisters can be counted on to never run out of food -- or mishaps!

"Delightful, and absolutely delicious!" -- New York Newsday
